

June 17, 2009

For Immediate Release

Media Contact: Rex Fuller, 303-778-0214
rfuller@operacolorado.org

Opera Colorado announces chorus auditions for 2009-2010 Season

DENVER, CO—Opera Colorado will be holding auditions for chorus members on Sunday, August 30th from 11 am to 4 pm at the Robert and Judi Newman Center for Theatre Education in the Historic Tramway Building. Opera Colorado will be auditioning mezzo-soprano, tenor and bass voice types only. Applicants who are being considered will be contacted and given an audition time.

"The chorus is a strong part of each of Opera Colorado's productions," said General Director Greg Carpenter. "So many chorus members find the experience rewarding, especially the opportunity to work with acclaimed directors such as Ron Daniels and David Gately as well as singers such as Sondra Radvanovsky."

Interested parties should e-mail their resume by August 14 to George Twombly, Artistic Administrator, at gtwombly@operacolorado.org. More details can be found at OperaColorado.org.

DATE: Sunday, August 30th
TIME: Auditions 11am– 4:00 pm
WHERE: Robert and Judi Newman Center for Theatre Education in the Historic Tramway Building at 1101 13th Street, Denver
(Purple Studio on 2nd Floor)

###